School Accountability Report Card

Reported Using Data from the 2014-15 School Year

Published During 2015-16

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page at <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district, the county, and the state. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

School Description and Mission Statement (Most Recent Year)

The Arcadia High School (AHS) Accountability Report Card describes for our community the progress our school has made in the past year and our plans for the coming year. It reflects the focus for improvements at our site that directly impact the accomplishments of all our students.

We have a rigorous curriculum and high expectations of faculty and students. Although the students score very high on all local, state, and national tests, the faculty and administration recognize that students must compete against the most challenging international standards. As a result, they continue to improve and refine curriculum and instructional approaches. Arcadia High School is not a static organization that rests on its well-deserved laurels. It is a dynamic and creative school that constantly strives to prepare students for the world in which they will live and work. We will continue to find ways for our students to take center stage and to shine. Whether in the academic, extracurricular, athletic, or visual and performing arts arenas of our school, we exist for our students. Our entire community is committed to working together to find areas that need improvement and to put in the tireless hours to make our school a better place.

If you wish to obtain additional information, please visit our website at ahs.ausd.net or contact the school directly at (626) 821-8370.

A. Conditions of Learning

State Priority: Basic

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the Basic State Priority (Priority 1):

- Degree to which teachers are appropriately assigned and fully credentialed in the subject area and for the pupils they are teaching;
- Pupils have access to standards-aligned instructional materials; and
- School facilities are maintained in good repair.

School Facility Conditions and Planned Improvements (Most Recent Year)

Arcadia High School was built in 1952 and underwent renovation in 1995–1996. The 2008–2009 school year saw the beginning of a $140 million, five-year construction and renovation project funded by the passage of a facilities-improvement bond. As part of the new construction, a new science building with 16 new labs; a student-support building with eight new classrooms, a TV studio, and seven computer labs; and a 134-seat lecture hall building were opened in the winter of the 2010–2011 school year.

A 1,200-seat performing arts center with three additional classrooms opened in the fall of the 2012–2013 school year. In addition, the G, F and E row classrooms were remodeled prior to the start of the 2013-2014 school year. The Arcadia High School campus will gain 30 new classrooms by the completion of this project. The CTE Buildings will be completed in the fall of 2015 along with a brand new aquatic complex.

The student lunch area was completely remodeled prior to the opening of the 2013-2014 school year. The addition of large male and female student restrooms was completed at the same time. The work on the North Gym, which includes a new floor and new bleachers, is slated to be completed before the middle of November 2013.

Each full-time teacher has his/her own classroom. In addition, the campus currently has two staff rooms, a library/media center, a TV studio, seven computer labs, a cafeteria, three music rooms, four locker rooms, two gyms, and four athletic fields. At the time of this publication, all of the school's student restrooms in areas not under construction were fully functioning.

The high school facilities manager works directly with the custodial staff employees to ensure a clean and safe school. District maintenance staff ensures that the repairs necessary to keep the school in good repair and working order are completed in a timely manner.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

- Statewide assessments (i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP], Science California Standards Tests); and
- The percentage of pupils who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study

Workforce Preparation

The Career Technology Education (CTE) offers an extensive variety of career-technical classes. These classes include career preparation of the highest standards and are suitable for students planning to enter the workforce or attend college. In fact, the ROP career-technical programs in graphic design, video production, computer programming, computer networking, and engineering courses have specific articulated pathways so that students can seamlessly continue their education after high school at Pasadena City College or Cal Poly Pomona. In addition, many of the ROP offerings at Arcadia High School are considered college preparatory and meet the rigorous A-G college entrance requirements of the University of California and California State University systems.

CTE classes are designed to provide academic studies and hands-on training using classroom and community work sites. A certificate of achievement is awarded following successful completion of every class. Every CTE class includes a core curriculum of effective communication, accessing and managing job-related resources, setting career and life goals, and accepting personal responsibility. Some of the classes that students can enroll in during the school day and after school include video production, advanced placement and college prep computer science, business management, computer hardware and networking, civil and criminal law, cross-age literacy, culinary science, graphic design, digital photography, dance, engineering, and sports medicine. All CTE courses help satisfy graduation requirements and many are UC approved.

The Workability Program and the Transition Partnership Program provide students with special needs opportunities to be placed at local businesses to gain work-related skills, further expanding an understanding of the importance of their education as it relates to the postsecondary educational plans.

Our high school offers courses intended to help students prepare for the world of work. These Career Technical Education (CTE) courses are open to all students. The accompanying table shows the percentage of our students who enrolled in a CTE course at any time during the school year. We enrolled 1450 students in career technical education courses.

C. Engagement

State Priority: Parental Involvement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the Parental Involvement State Priority (Priority 3):

- Efforts the school district makes to seek parent input in making decisions for the school district and each schoolsite.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (Most Recent Year)

Parents and the community are very supportive of the educational and cultural programs at Arcadia High School. The school community is committed to providing a quality education, which meets the needs of Arcadia High School's diverse student body. For the first year, AHS is implementing an electronic grade book. Teachers are now using PowerSchool, which facilitates communication between school and the home.

Parent support groups are very active, including the PTSA, Arcadia Music Club, Arcadia Athletic Booster Club, AVID Booster Club, Chinese, Hispanic, and Korean parent groups who support programs such as Diversity Week and cultural groups in our school community. Our dedicated Parent Teacher Student Association (PTSA) supports various school activities, such as classroom projects, Red Cross Drive, Back-to-School Night, and Spring Preview for our incoming freshman orientations. Parents also serve as active members on the School Site Council (SSC), School Site Leadership Team (SSLT), and English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC). We receive additional support from local community partners including the Arcadia Rotary Club and the Arcadia Educational Foundation.

State Priority: Pupil Engagement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the Pupil Engagement State Priority (Priority 5):

School Safety Plan (Most Recent Year)

To safeguard the well-being of students and staff, a comprehensive School Site Safety Plan has been developed by the Safety and Disaster Committee, which consists of classified staff, teachers, and the principal. The committee sets long-term goals for the school to continually improve safety and the condition of the school facilities. The Safety Plan is updated each spring and fall and addresses various safety issues, including creating procedures that detect and prevent bullying, ensuring appropriate campus supervision, maintaining disaster kits, and monitoring emergency procedures. The Safety Plan is reviewed with all staff members at the beginning of each school year. We hold safety drills on a regular basis; fire drills are held monthly, earthquake drills are held two times a year, and intruder/lockdown drills are held at least once a year. Staff members also receive disaster training on a regular basis.

To ensure student safety, teachers, administrators, and school proctors supervise students on campus before and after school, and during breaks and lunch. Arcadia High has a closed campus, and permission is always required for students to leave school grounds. Any visitors to the campus are required to check in at the school's main office and must wear the proper identification badge at all times.

The Safety Plan is updated each year by March 1 for the following school year. Plans are discussed with faculty and students at the beginning of each school year.

Professional Development (Most Recent Three Years)

In May of 2013, Governor Brown committed $1 billion of the extra $2.8 billion of revenue the state received in 2013 for Common Core State Standards implementation. Additional monies were made available to California school districts for Year 2 implementation in 2014-15; however, under the Local Control Funding Formula, districts like Arcadia Unified School District, with low numbers of unduplicated students will receive far less ongoing money to continue the implementation of California Academic Standards beyond 2014-15, while neighboring districts with greater numbers of targeted or “unduplicated” students (low income, English Learners, or foster youth) will have greater opportunities to purchase materials, hire consultants, and pay for hours of professional development for their instructional and student support staffs.

In the Fall of 2013, the Arcadia Unified School District negotiated an interest-based solution for California Academic Standards implementation with its bargaining units to add three days to the school calendar for two years starting in the 2014-15 school year. Negotiations also produced an agreement to spread the three days of additional paid time over seven early release days with development time of 2.5 hours per day built into the schedule.

In the Spring of 2014, a committee grew out of Arcadia’s Education 21 Task Force called the Collaboration Time Advisory Council (C-TAC) with the task of putting legs to the plan. C-TAC is a representative group made up of bargaining unit members and management team members who were charged with serving as an advisory committee to the District in the implementation of the district-wide California Academic Standards Collaboration Time supporting TK-12 instructional programs both vertically and horizontally, as they made dramatic instructional and curricular shifts.

The commitment from both our bargaining units and management was to build research-based professional development around small collaborative working groups. Each group would be designed intentionally to have a vertical alignment of teachers from TK-12 engaged in the work together.

In late Spring of 2014, the C-TAC committee reached out to all certificated staff to assist with generating ideas for the content of the Collaboration Days. The committee, after reviewing and discussing the many ideas that were submitted and looking at survey data, generated a list of themes which became the foundation of the Collaboration Days and assisted in guiding the development of a Course Group Catalogue. The planning of the Collaboration Days was research based, focused on meaningful work, teacher choice, flexibility, and ongoing commitment. The Professional Development was designed around teacher interests that included creating autonomous choice for teachers and support providers in relation to where they felt they could best contribute their training, talents, interests, and education, by participating in Small Working Groups (SWaG) and engaging with other professionals to continue the real work of implementing the California Academic Standards.

Each SWaG is led by a self-selected Facilitator from amongst the various stakeholder groups and has been charged with collaborating both with colleagues at their own site and with fellow professionals from other district sites. Mentor-leaders have self-selected several Facilitators to provide support throughout implementation of this professional development. The crystal-clear goals of the Collaboration Days include producing a comprehensive and fully articulated Arcadia California Academic Standards Core Curriculum in English-Language Arts and Mathematics; to research and make recommendations for curriculum and instructional shifts in the Social Sciences, Sciences, Foreign Languages, Physical Education, Electives, Visual and Performing Arts, Character Education, Technology implementation, English-Language Development, and Special Education from a Transitional Kindergarten to Grade 12 perspective. Data continues to be collected from the SWaGs through group evaluations and is then disaggregated and shared through various modalities to each stakeholder group.

Over the past three years, additional professional development resources have been designated for Mathematics and English-Language curriculum development and 21st Century instructional skill development, including National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM) conferences, Thinking Maps, and Write From the Beginning, in support of California Academic Standards implementation. At the high school level, data indicated that a large segment of potentially college-bound students were not being provided access and opportunity to pursue honors and college-level courses, as their high-achieving classmates were. Leadership worked with teachers to engage in professional development around the themes of Advanced Placement (AP) open access and equity for all students over the past two years. Professional Development resources have been designated to send teachers, counselors and leadership to the local and regional College Board/A.P. Forums. Continued professional development will be pursued at the national level.

Similarly, both middle school and high school leadership mined data to identify a significant population of students who should be college-bound but who were not achieving or engaged in school due to a variety of social, economic, or familial factors. As a result, the full implementation of the Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID) program has been a primary focus of professional development dollars over the past 3 years, especially at grades 7-12. In addition, one elementary school, Holly Avenue, added a full school AVID program.

Individual school sites have been tasked with working with the Instructional Coaches to conduct professional development around the themes of the California Academic Standards, including rigor, focus, coherence, instructional strategies, shifts in curriculum, pacing and instructional materials, writing instruction and problem-solving.

Staff development topics for the 2012 – 2013 school year included effective instruction and critical thinking, implementation of the electronic grade book, and discussion of the California Academic Standards.
