

Medal of Honor Recipient Speaks to Students at Arcadia High

Retired Army Colonel Bruce P. Crandall (center), one of only 80 living Medal of Honor Recipients, spoke to an assembly of Arcadia High School history classes about bravery and self-sacrifice in the new Performing Arts Center on February 8. The Medal of Honor is America's highest military honor awarded for personal acts of valor above and beyond the call of duty. Colonel Crandall received the Medal for acts of heroism as a helicopter pilot in Vietnam. On the right, the Colonel is pictured with AHS Assistant Principal John Finn, Superintendent Joel Shawn, Teacher and Event Coordinator Chris Marston, and AHS Principal Brent Forsee.

